Application Acknowledgement

PLEASE ACKNOWLEDGE YOUR UNDERSTANDING OF THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION BY SIGNING BELOW

This application is made in accordance with and subject to the bylaws and articles of incorporation of the New York Capital Region Apartment Association. I agree to abide by the Code of Ethics, bylaws and articles of incorporation of the New York Capital Region Apartment Association. I hereby apply for membership and enclose payment for the first year's dues. Membership renews automatically on an annual basis. Cancellation must be received in writing and prior to Dec 31 in order to cancel dues obligations for the following year. Make checks payable to the NEW YORK CAPITAL REGION APARTMENT ASSOCIATION. Dues payments to the Association may be deductible as a business expense but are not deductible as a charitable contribution. By joining, members also become a member of the National Apartment Association. Thirty (30) dollars of each member's annual membership dues will go toward a one-year subscription to NAA's Units Magazine. In the event of suspension or termination of membership, I agree to immediately discontinue the use of said Association's insignias in any form and will not represent myself or my company as a member.

Upon the approval of the application by the Board of Directors, the primary contact listed will automatically receive a new member packet including a copy of the current Membership Directory, upcoming event information and current newsletter. All further correspondence, event notices and publications will be directed to their attention, by email, unless the NYCRAA office is notified to send additional notices to other company representatives or member requests correspondence be sent by other means of communication. To promote camaraderie and business among its supporters, NYCRAA encourages its current members to display their membership sticker and to include the NYCRAA logo on company literature and advertising.

Code of Ethics

Recognizing our duty to the public, established principles of good business practice and the free enterprise system, and in order to provide the apartment-residing public with the maximum in quality and service upon the highest standards of honesty and integrity, we, the members of the New York Capital Region Apartment Association, do hereby bind ourselves with the adoption of this Code of Ethics with each and every member, together and alone, agreeing that so long as we remain members of the Association and so long as nothing contained herein shall be unlawful, we shall:

- Maintain and operate our apartment communities in accordance with fair and honorable standards of competition, ever mindful of the purpose of the New York Capital Apartment Association.
- Strive continually to promote the education of the membership and to promote the progress and dignity of the apartment industry in creating a better image of itself in order that the public may be better served.
- Refrain from any practice which might prove detrimental to the apartment industry by creating unstable and chaotic market conditions.
- Refrain from attempting to obtain apartment residents, through advertising or otherwise by means of deceptive, misleading or fraudulent statements, misrepresentations or the use of implications unwarranted by fact or reasonable probability.
- Endeavor to expose all schemes to mislead the apartment-residing public and to aid in exposure of those responsible.
- Seek to provide better value so that an even greater portion of the public may realize the many benefits and conveniences of apartment living.
